Being a Role Model

An anonymous author once made this true statement, "We cannot live our lives alone, for other lives we touch, are either strengthened by our own, or weakened just as much." The apostle Paul said it another way, "For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself". There's not a person living who does not influence someone, either for good, or for evil. And thus, whether we like it or not, every one of us is a role model to someone. Paul commended the Thessalonians because they followed him and the Lord. And because of their godly influence as role models, they not only became examples to all the believers in Macedonia but they were also well-known for their faith toward God. As we pattern our life after Christ. Let's ask ourselves, "What is the quality of our spiritual influence? Is it negative or positive?" Our spiritual influence is either one or the other — it can never be neutral. No one can ever truly say, "I'm not a role model." For the cause of Christ, let's be the best godly role model we can be!

Not forsaking and exhorting.
 Hebrews 10:25 (KJV) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

I listened last night to a young mother who was, as all of us with kids have probably done, lamenting at times how much easier it would be to just leave the kids at home and go by themselves. Then she said but I can't do that and deny them the opportunity to worship God. The elders appreciate the effort each of you make to attend all the services especially the single mothers and the special effort they have to make. We also appreciate the older women who look after these single mothers to encourage them to attend and pick them up to bring them to services.

WORSHIP SERVICES.....
 What a powerful message and lesson put at our feet yesterday by Larry.
