On Saturday, July 7th, the 7-12th grade will have finger foods and games at the Willis' home.

SAYS

Tuesday, July 10th, will be the Shoals Area Youth Series at Jackson Heights. Bus will leave at 5:50 pm. Food will be provided.

The God of Second Chances

There's no question in my mind, that I serve the God of second chances. This last week of camp showed this idea as dozens of young men and women came forward asking God for a second chance. We had seven from our own congregation who said they wanted a fresh start in Christ. We serve a God who will give us the opportunity to start fresh, to reset in life.

If you have lived any time on this earth, you have more than likely experienced times where you wish you could have just redone something or started over. The good news is we get a second chance! However, on the day of our departure from this earth, God's grace and longsuffering will cease and there will be no more second chances — our eternal destiny will be forever sealed (Luke 16:22-26). If your life is out of harmony with God's will, won't you please take advantage of God's longsuffering and grace this day, by rendering obedience to the saving gospel of Christ. Will you willingly surrender your will to the God of second chances? You'll be eternally thankful that you did.

IN THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS

Betty Shearin fell and broke her arm. Surgery will be soon.

Elvis Jones, brother of Jean Harrison, is having health issues and he also lost his wife this past week.

Donna Cassel's cousin, Melissa Lee, has breast cancer and will begin chemo & radiation on July 3rd.

Butch Durham, uncle of Scottie Durham, had a stroke recently and is not doing well.

Karen Harrison continues to need our prayers.

RESTORATION:

Chase Lawhead was restored and requested prayers on Sunday. Montanna Boyd, Colin Young, Emma Mauldin, Marybrooke Alexander and Alexa Howard were all restored at Maywood.

Woodlawn Church of Christ Workshop

There were 21 who attended the Workshop, which included five adults and 16 teenagers. This was an enthusiastic group that inspired everyone to get involved in seeking the lost. The Eldership at Woodlawn is to be commended for their leadership in inspiring their young people to want to reach out to the lost of this world. We all know the verses and the commandment (Mark 16:15-16) '...go and teach...' but this group is doing this and Cox Blvd is a part of this...YOU... are a part of this. Please add Eddie Matthews and the Woodlawn Youth Group to your prayer list for a safe trip down and back to Mobile.

MODEST APPAREL

In I Timothy 2:9 we find an admonition to the women to "adorn themselves in modest apparel". In the warmer months our ladies and young ladies need to be especially attentive to their dress whether it be at work, school, church services and all activities in the building, pavilion or anywhere on the church grounds. We have a high calling as ambassadors for Christ to honor Him in all things. It is not possible to name every type of clothing that would not pass the biblical test of modesty, but if modern bathing suits, short shorts, plunging necklines, skin tight jeans/leggings, expansive midriffs and skin-tight jeans are modest, what would be immodest? Young men also need to wear clothing that reflects the Christian example for the worship services and all church related activities. Avoid clothing with distracting wording and symbols.

Remember, as Christians, we need to be good examples whatever the occasion and wherever we go.
