Back to School

Its that time of the year again...a time that most kids are still afraid to even say "back to school". Summer is over and its time to trade in beach trips, sleeping late and playing games with friends and family for books, early alarm clocks and hours of homework and book reports.

However, with the new school year presents an opportunity to be a new you. Each person after summer break has a second chance. An opportunity to change how they act and treat others. It doesn't matter what grades you made last year or how your sports team did you are starting over! In our Christian life we often need to go back to school. To start over. In John 8:1-10 we read about a girl who was given a second chance in life. We serve a God of second chances. Who lets us start fresh. As the new school year approaches let us all think of where we need to start over and pray that God will help us do so!
