The Saddest Words of All

We often think back on the happiest days of our life in which we may mention graduation from school, our first new car, our marriage, the birth of a child or grandchild, or other important occasions to us. Few, however, think for long about the saddest words of all. We shy away from words like sickness, death, cancer, and divorce. These should be and are dreaded words of sorrow. Although these are, indeed, sad words, they are not the saddest words of all! Those words expressed by Jeremiah in the eighth chapter. Here are some of the saddest words known to man: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved" (Jer. 8:20). The weeping prophet realizes the death of his beloved people Israel. Though God had been gracious in sending His Word and His prophets they have not accepted God. Don't ever hear these horrible words! Do not wait until it is too late. Follow Jesus each and every day.

NOTICE

This past March we met with all the Care Groups. There were over 150 comments and suggestions. The comments were meticulously recorded and organized. Some suggestions have been adopted already and some have been rejected. Victory Hall is now in the process of been refurbished. Also, we have changed the schedule for the Men's Breakfast.

There were many comments about our nightly service schedule. Next Sunday, May 13th, the Elders have arranged to get feedback from the entire congregation. Next Sunday, all attendance cards will have a list of possible meeting times for evening services. You will need to choose one time per family for Sunday evening and for Wednesday evening. If you know you will not be present next Sunday, please call the office for your family. Our current schedule creates conflicts with ongoing Youth and Spiritual Activities.
