This Is the Day

Today is the most important time for each one of – because it is all we have! We are not promised next year, next month, next week, or even tomorrow. Today is important because it is when we can make the “choice” to obey, to encourage a brother or sister, to take the first step in living a life for Christ... to find one’s life in losing it. James says that our lives are as a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away (James 4:14). Our life, like the morning fog, vanishes in the heat of the sun. A day in our earthly life is a valuable and precious gift because it is soon over. We are not promised tomorrow. “Today” is all we have. James gives us instructions on what our attitude should be concerning “Tomorrow”. “Instead you ought to say, ‘If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that.’ But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil”. Brethren, let us imitate saints of the first century of whom it is said, “And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ”

A Whole Lot going on Saturday...

Ladies Prayer Breakfast 8:00AM

1Thes 5:11. There were activities going on Saturday way before 7AM! The Keenum family and Care Group 4 were hosting the First Women's Prayer Breakfast with Pam Lenz as the speaker. Over 50 women from Cox Blvd and our sister congregations attended and want to do this on a regular basis. The women prayed, sang songs, read scriptures and heard a lesson from Pam, "Where You Are..." Mark 5:25-34. You are enough. You are so enough, it is so unbelievable how enough you are. This went on until 10:00 and later. Several of the ladies left at 9:30 for the next event!

Local Evangelism 9:00-12:00 Mark 16:15-16.

Door Knocking to reach the lost in our community. Brent Bulman was pairing up the eight teams on the bus and the three teams making encouragement visits. They knocked doors from 9:45am-12:15pm and set up four studies, call-backs and requests for prayers. Larry drove the big bus and Bill had pizza and dessert waiting for us when we returned. This group left the building about 2:30pm and the Ladies Prayer group were also cleaning up and some were getting ready for the next event!

Evangelism Encouragement Dinner 5:30-7:00 Matt 28:18-20.

This was organized by Terry Lenz and the Office as a celebration of the 12th Annual Campaign's workers but also those who knock doors every month and the other works of evangelist done at Cox Blvd. The speaker was Doug Milligan the preacher at Hillcrest church of Christ, Tuscaloosa, AL where Cox Blvd will be hosting the 13th Annual campaign this summer 7-14 June. There are almost 40 different works at Cox Blvd that are needing workers to help reach out and encourage others to worship with us and to study the Bible.
